IPVS- The Voice of Industrial Pumps, Valves & Process System Industry !!

The Industrial Pumps, Valves and Process Systems Trade Fair- Popularly known as IPVS – is the one and only trade show dedicated to Pumps, valves and allied industries worldwide to come and explore the innumerable opportunity offered by the Indian process industry. The show over the years hosted many international pumps and valves companies who were able to either set up their own facilities/offices or found most prospective dealers/ distributors. It was also lauded as the best show in its class and was instrumental in bringing the Indian and International flavors under one roof. The most important feature of the show was its flexibility to host this industry get together at various industrial & commercial hubs in India like Mumbai, Chennai, Ahmedabad, Pune, Bangalore Coimbatore etc.

The overwhelming support received by IPVS over the years, have prompted us to host this trade event once again in Gujarat- The Industrial capital of India. The show will take place from 13th to 15th October 2016 at GUEH, Gujarat and will be co-located with two end-user industry related trade fairs - Pharmac India (Pharmaceutical Machinery & Technologies exhibition) and Techno Chem India (The Chemical & Petrochemical) exhibition. The show will also witness two highly business oriented conferences- one for the pumps and valves industry and the other for the end-user industry. We are glad to invite you to this wonderful opportunity to network with the ever growing Indian process Industry- Welcome !!
